June 16 East Bay Vivarium: Owen returns with his wild collection of insects, reptiles – and a real dragon!

June 23 Jim Cogan: Renowned storyteller, “Man of a thousand faces and voices” will mesmerize us with tales from around the world.

June 30 Happy Birds: Can birds ride bikes and sing opera?

July 7 Crosspulse: From balls and boxes to banjos and your own body, you'll learn to make music out of anything!

July 14 Classroom Safari *ends at 4 p.m. Wild animals in Pioneer Park? See an ocelot, alligator, fennec fox, ferret and more!

July 21 Sombrero Sisters: Hold on to your hats as our own Kathy Clark and Sharon McClintock tell tales from around the globe.

July 28 Brian Scott Magic: He's a master of magic and mind reading. Baffling, comical, you won't believe your eyes!

August 4 Juan Sanchez: “Songs and Tales from Near and Far” – sing along in different languages and hear the funniest version ever of Abiyoyo!

READ Quest! - Read Enjoy Appreciate Discover
Tuesdays, June 14, 21, 28 & July 5 - 2:00-3:00pm
For Entering 3rd and 4th graders

Children choose books to read and discuss. They will use their talents to create unique projects. We will explore different literary genres, fantasy, mystery, etc. We'll include read aloud time and creative dramatics to develop your child's love of literature and comprehension skills. Join our quest! 25 students only. Register Online. Presented by Children's Librarian Sharon McClintock.
